

WCC Respects Your Right to Privacy

Worthington Christian Church respects your right to privacy and understands your desire to protect personally identifiable information. When you are visiting this website, we collect information concerning where you go on the site, what browser you use, operating system and IP address. This information aids us in the future development of our site in order to meet the various needs of our visitors. By using this website, you are giving us your express consent to use the information that we collect about you in the manner described in this policy.

Please be aware, the off-site links Worthington Christian Church provides have no direct affiliation with WCC. These sites are not bound by our privacy policy. If you have concerns about any of these third-party sites, please read their privacy policy and/or contact the site administrator.

The personally identifiable information we collect is done so by the consent of the individual volunteering said information. (Personally identifiable information is any information that could be used to identify you personally.) This may include your name, address, email address, telephone number, zip code, gender, birthday, etc. We may use this information in future promotional mailings. If you do not wish to take part in said mailings, please contact the church office (614-885-8389) and we will remove your name from our lists (no questions asked).

Photography Policy

Professional photographs used on worthingtoncc.org are used only with written permission from the copyright holder. All other photos were purchased or taken by, and belong to, Worthington Christian Church.

Including the images of our church family on our website can be a great way to motivate and encourage individuals to become more involved. It is also an excellent outreach tool to the visitor who may be curious about what our events and activities are like. It is for these reasons that we may feature personal photographs on the Worthington Christian Church website.

In order to protect the privacy and security of our youngest members and guests, most of the images of children featured on this site are not photos of our current membership/attenders.

However, we realize the importance of maintaining the privacy of the individual(s) pictured on this site. To this end, the Worthington Christian Church website ensures:

- The last name of a pictured individual is never published alongside a photograph.
- Anyone listed as a contact will be an adult (21-years-old or older).
- No identifying information will be posted on the internet (see our privacy policy).
- In the case of a group photo, first names may be mentioned, but we will not disclose which individuals are standing where in said photo without the express consent of those photographed.

NOTE: Our Privacy and Photography policies do not necessarily apply to “My Home” as it is a member-only site and said members can alter their information, family or personal portraits and/or set their privacy settings to their individual comfort level.

Worthington Christian Church reserves the right to amend this policy at any time.

Questions or concerns regarding this policy should be addressed to the site designer, Kristie McGlaughlin or the Office Administrator, Terri Gallahue.
